The Speech made TO Sir JOHN GREENVILE, BY Sir HARBOT. GRIMSTONE KNIGHT,

Speaker to the Honourable Houſe of Commons, May 3. 1660.

SIR JOHN GREENVILE!

I Need not tell you with what gratefull and thankfull hearts the Commons now Aſſembled in Parliament, have received His Majeſties gracious Letter, Res ipſa Loquitur, you your ſelfe have been Auricularis & Ocularis teſtis de rei veritate. Our Bells, and our Bonfires have already begun the Proclimation of his Majeſties goodneſſe, and of our joyes. We have told the people that our King, the glory of England is coming home again; and they have reſounded it back again in our ears, that they are ready, and their hearts are open to receive him. Both Parliament and people have cryed aloud in their prayer to the King of Kings, Long live King Charles the 2d.

I am likewiſe to tell you, that the Houſe doth not think fit that you ſhould return to our Royall Soveraign without ſome Teſtimony of their reſpects to your ſelf; They have ordered and appointed that five hundred pound ſhall be delivered unto you to buy a Jewell, as a badge of that honour which is due to a perſon whom the King hath honoured to to be the Meſſenger of ſo gratious a meſſage. And I am commanded in the Name of the Houſe to return to you their very hearty thanks.
